Meet Your Truck

State-of-the-art, late model trucks with the technology you need to stay on track.

Aerodynamic technology works to improve tractor-trailer fuel efficiency by reducing aerodynamic drag.

Well maintained to make sure every mile is a fuel efficient, smooth one.

Comfortable and safe, the sleeper is your sanctuary.

Un-tethered trailer tracking remotely manages and monitors reefer settings and operational conditions.

What Our Drivers Say

C.R. England goes way out on a limb to help drivers get the necessary skills needed to be better drivers.

I would recommend C.R. England as a good place to start your career.

Available Driver Positions

DEDICATED

Regular Routes • Consistent Miles
Great Pay • Relationships with Customers

Each day brings new opportunity, in dedicated there is one thing you can count on - consistent miles with regular routes and best of all, great pay. Though home time, miles and pay are dependent on markets and regions, we offer the predictable lifestyle you're looking for in a career with team, solo, and training positions available.

INTERMODAL

Local Routes • Home Almost Every Day
Flexible Schedules • Competitive Pay

Intermodal serves all the major freight markets in the U.S., with local driving positions running up to 200 miles from the rail to the customer and back. There's a lot to like about Intermodal - you're home almost every day, you have a flexible schedule and competitive pay. The drivers in this division are in high demand and are carefully selected because of their driving skills and ability to communicate well with our customers.

REGIONAL

Balanced Home & Road Life • Regular Routes
Consistent Pay • Great Miles

Regional offers the best of both worlds: a well-balanced life on the road and frequent home time. Regional has a shorter length of haul because it runs in more confined regions, which ultimately means more frequent home time, regularity with routes and more consistent pay.

NATIONAL

Great Miles • Competitive Pay
Explore the Country

If your passion is to drive and have the freedom to see the country, this is the division for you. With great miles, competitive pay and the freedom you're looking for, this division has never been better. You can enjoy life on the road while earning one day off for every week out. If you're up for an adventure, the National division is for you.

Team Driving

There are few opportunities, like teaming, you can enjoy many miles while taking advantage of tremendous financial rewards. With excellent freight selection, high pay and great miles, teaming is an option everyone should consider. You have the support of your driver manager to help you along the way. If you don't have partner, we'll help you find one.

Driver Trainer

Trainers are considered the most skilled and qualified drivers in the industry and their pay matches their status. As a trainer, you will be developing the next generation of drivers at C.R. England, all while enjoying lucrative pay and exclusive status. Become one of the highest paid drivers by earning all the miles your truck runs, plus an extra bonus for each student you successfully train.
